

Transcript of 'In my Liverpool Home' video

I like getting my hair done. I like just messing about with people and going to the pub. I love reading and listening to jazz music. I love a party. I love my family. I love learning new things. I love music. Anything that makes me feel good inside. I love Tom Jones. I love music – rock music. My favourite singer is Ronnie Drew from the Dubliners. Why Why Why Delilah. My favourite singer is probably Leonard Cohen. My favourite song is Younger than Springtime. I love going to church. I am a member of the local church. I am a committed Christian. Jesus, my Saviour. I love scousers. I like going out. I also like, as you can see, sometimes some bright colours. I try to be humorous. I am impulsive. I'm the person who does the Tesco shopping. I'm a proper joker. I am spontaneous. I try to fit in. I'm a bit mixed up really. I like playing football and badminton. I support Liverpool, Everton and Barcelona. I'm a blue. I love playing and watching football. I like Steven Gerard. I hate sport. I hate cheese or eggs. I hate Sunday nights. I don't like seeing people spending time on the material side of life. I like boys. I don't want to be lonely. Not much makes me sad, I am generally an optimistic person. I am from Romania and I love my country. I'm a scouser and it's brilliant. I used to live in the Dominican Republic. I wish one day I could visit New York. My favourite food is soup and sandwiches. I like chips. My favourite food is bolognaise. I love roast like of lamb. Burger. I wanted to a be a ballerina but I discovered this dream too late. I'd like to be a fire man I think. I would like to work in our café. I wanted to be a guitar player, in fact I am still playing guitar and writing my own songs. I want to be a lawyer. I wanted to be a nurse when I was growing up. I'm a gutarist. I am a top driver of mini buses. I try to work hard. I am vulnerable. I love spending time with my friends and family. I used to dress up as a pirate. I love the parks of Liverpool. I love the people. I love vegetables. I don't like the escalators. I miss my family. I like also (believe it or not) time to myself where I can play very quiet music and read. I love chocolate and Indian takeaways. I like the telly. I like Emmerdale Farm. The Eastenders. Favourite movie? Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid. I like Mama Mia. I love Coronation Street. I'm an extrovert, so there we are.

I like lifts. It's easier to get the wheelchair into the lifts.